LIMITS OF CONFIDENTIALITY

Contents of all therapy sessions are considered to be confidential. Both verbal information and written records about a client cannot be shared with another party without the written consent of the client or the client's legal guardian. Noted exceptions are as follows:

Duty to Warn and Protect When a client discloses intentions or a plan to harm another person, the mental health professional is required to warn the intended victim and report this information to legal authorities. In cases in which the client discloses or implies a plan for suicide, the health care professional is required to notify legal authorities and make reasonable attempts to notify the family of the client.

Abuse of Children and Vulnerable Adults If a client states or suggests that he or she is abusing a child (or vulnerable adult) or has recently abused a child (or vulnerable adult), or a child (or vulnerable adult) is in danger of abuse, the mental health professional is required to report this information to the appropriate social service and/or legal authorities.

Prenatal Exposure to Controlled Substances Mental Health care professionals are required to report admitted prenatal exposure to controlled substances that are potentially harmful.

Minors/Guardianship Parents or legal guardians of non-emancipated minor clients have the right to access the clients' records.

Insurance Providers (when applicable) Insurance companies and other third-party payers are given information that they request regarding services to clients. Information that may be requested includes, but is not limited to: types of service, dates/times of service, diagnosis, treatment plan, description of impairment, progress of therapy, case notes, and summaries.

I agree to the above limits of confidentiality and understand their meanings and ramifications.

HIPPA - NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

The Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA") is a federal program that requires that all medical records and other individually identifiable health information used or disclosed by us in any form, whether electronically, on paper, or orally, are kept properly confidential. This Act gives you, the patient, significant new rights to understand and control how your health information is used. "HIPAA" provides penalties for covered entities that misuse personal health information. As required by "HIPAA", we have prepared this explanation of how we are required to maintain the privacy of your health information and how we may use and disclose your health information. We may use and disclose your medical records only for each of the following purposes: treatment, payment and health care operations.

- Treatment means providing, coordinating or managing health care and related services by one or more health care providers. An example of this would include referral to/from another physician, health care agency, dentist, school.
- Payment means such activities as obtaining reimbursement for services, confirming coverage, billing or collection activities, and utilization review. An example of this would be providing you with a bill for your visit that you will send to your insurance company for reimbursement.
- Health care operations include the business aspects of running our practice, conducting quality assessment and improvement activities, auditing functions, cost-management analysis and customer service. An example would be an internal assessment review, sharing your health information with staff members to assess our performance, assess quality of care and learn how to improve services.
- To avert a serious threat to health or safety of you, the public or any other person
- Law enforcement/national security/protective services. We may release medical information in response to a court order, a subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process; to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person; about the victim of a crime if under certain circumstances we are unable to obtain the person's agreement; about a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct; in emergency circumstances to report a crime.
- As required by law. We will disclose medical information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law. An example of this is to report information related to victims of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.
- Appointment reminders/Treatment Alternatives/Health-Related Benefits and Services, or payment of your care.
- Individuals involved in your care or payment of your care. If you do not wish such information be shared, please follow the procedures described in the Right to Request Restrictions.
- Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose medical information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law such as audits, investigations, inspections and licensure.
- Worker's Compensation. We may release information for workers' comp or similar programs.
- Public Health Risks for example to prevent or control disease, injury, disability; reactions to medication, food, other products; to report births, deaths, abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
- Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors so they can carry out their duties.

We may also create and distribute de-identified health information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Any other uses and disclosures will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke such authorization in writing and we are required to honor and abide by that written request, except to the extent that we have already taken actions relying on your authorization.

You have the following rights with respect to your protected health information, which you can exercise by presenting a written request to the Privacy Officer, Helene Miller, MD; 17 Arcadian Way Paramus, NJ 07652:

- The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information, including those related to disclosures to any person identified by you. You must request a restriction in writing. We are, however, not required to agree to a requested restriction. If we do agree to a restriction, we must abide by it unless you agree in writing to remove it.
- The right to reasonable requests to receive confidential communications of protected health information from us by alternative means or at alternative locations.
- The right to inspect and copy your protected health information, however we have the right to deny request for psychotherapy notes and provide treatment summary in lieu of psychotherapy notes. If you request copies there is a charge of $1.00 per page, with a minimum charge of $10.00 for records of 10 or fewer pages and a maximum charge of $100.00. If you request an alternative format, we will charge a cost-based fee for providing your health information in that format. Physician's fees are based upon their hourly rate.
- The right to amend your protected health information.
- The right to receive an accounting of disclosures of protected health information.
- The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us upon request.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information.

This notice is effective as of 1/1/17, and we are required to abide by the terms of the Notice of Private Practices currently in effect. We reserve the right to change the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices and to make the new notice provisions effective for all protected health information that we maintain. We will post and you may request a written copy of a revised Notice of Privacy Practices from this office. You have recourse if you feel that your privacy protections have been violated. You have the right to file a written complaint with our office or the Dept. of Health & Human Services, Office of Civil Rights about violations of provisions of this notice or the policies and procedures of our office. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint. For more information about HIPAA or to file a complaint:

Patient Credit Card on File Agreement

We have implemented a policy which enables you to maintain your credit card information securely via encryption on file with Family Psychiatry and Therapy. In providing us with your credit card information, you are giving Family Psychiatry and Therapy permission to automatically charge your credit card on file for your session fee, co-pay, or deductible at time of service. This agreement will remain in effect until the expiration of the credit card account and that you may revoke this form at any time by submitting a written request.

The card may automatically be charged in the event of a late cancellation (less than 24 hours' notice), a no-show/missed appointment.

Outstanding Balance: If there is an outstanding balance owed, Family Psychiatry and Therapy will notify you via phone and/or email. If by the final billing notice, we do not receive a response from you or your payment in full, at that time, any balance owed will be charged to your credit card. A copy of the charge will be sent by email or mailed to you. This in no way compromises your ability to dispute a charge or question your insurance company's determination of payment.

Multiple Users: This card will only be authorized for the use of the credit card holder, his/her minor(s), or any person(s) listed below.

I authorize Family Psychiatry and Therapy, to charge session fees, co-pays, deductibles and outstanding balances on my account to the following credit card:

Credit Card Type: Debit / Credit // Visa Mastercard Amex Other

General Practice Policies - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Appointment Policy

An appointment is considered a mutual commitment between you and your clinician and is subject to personal accountability and responsibility in keeping and managing the appointment. A 24 (twenty-four) hour notice is required to reschedule or cancel your appointment and to avoid automatic billing for payment of your session. Monday appointment cancellations must be received by the previous Friday. Appointments for which you arrive late will still end at the appointed time. As a courtesy, you may receive a reminder phone call, email and/or text for your appointment; however, responsibility for keeping your appointment is ultimately yours. All patients must arrive on time for their scheduled appointment. Failure to do so will result in a fee and rescheduling (if applicable) of the appointment.

Agree and Initial Here _____

Drug Screening Policy

Drug screens are performed on patients when necessary. All new patients and patients who are prescribed controlled substance medications will have an initial drug screen and may be subjected to ongoing and/or random drug screening after. All patients who are prescribed controlled substances either by medical staff or any other third-party providers will be subject to regular drug screening. Any charges that may result from the drug screens will be the responsibility of the patient if not covered by the insurance company.

Agree and Initial Here _____

Payment for Services

If we are not billing an insurance company for your service, the full payment is due at the time of service. Your co-payment and any deductibles and balances, which may apply, will be collected when you check-in. Family Psychiatry accepts cash, debit and all forms of credit cards. Balances and payment arrangements are the patient's responsibility and should be treated as a personal commitment and subject to personal accountability. Credit cards on file may be charged for outstanding balances.

Agree and Initial Here _____

Confidentiality

The practice operates in a "multi-disciplinary" way, meaning that the clinician's function as a team. Therefore, it is important to understand that the information in the chart is accessible to other clinicians in the office in order to provide you with quality and consistent care. However, no information about you or your care will be released to anyone outside the office without your consent or a court order. The only exceptions include suicidal or homicidal risk factors or child/elder abuse or neglect. You will complete a Release of Information that you can use to list person(s) to whom we may have communications with about you, your care and/or financial matters concerning your account. Children (under the age of 17) have the right to confidential exchanges with clinicians. However, if there are issues that pose grave or immediate danger, these issues may be discussed with parents or legal guardians or child protective services.

Agree and Initial Here _____

Contact and Treatment

Our office staff will take messages during regular business hours. Please allow 48-72 (business) hours for a response as clinicians have varied schedules and are not in the office each day. Please do not wait until a crisis to contact our office. We can address routine concerns much more effectively than crisis concerns. You may be asked to schedule a sooner appointment with your provider if our staff cannot address your concerns. Please note that most concerns are best addressed in sessions, and providers cannot be interrupted from treating others to take your calls. If your concern involves a safety issue, please notify our office immediately. If you have an after-hours concern, you may leave a message on our voicemail. If your need is emergent due to safety issues at any time, please call 911 or go to the nearest Emergency Department.

Agree and Initial Here _____

Discharge

If you are "discharged" from the practice you can no longer schedule appointments, get medication refills, or consider us to be your physician/therapist. You must find a provider(s) in another practice. Common reasons for discharge include failure to keep appointments, frequent no-shows, noncompliance with treatment plan or medical advice, verbally abusive or threatening behaviors to any of our staff or failure to pay your outstanding balance. We will send a letter to your last known address, notifying you that you are being discharged. If you have a medical emergency within 30 days of the date on the letter, we may assist you with care options.
